Youth Tour exposes students to how government functions

Thanks to WEC's annual Montgomery Youth Tour, ten area students had an opportunity to visit the state capital in March. And two of these students were selected by interview for the Washington Youth Tour in June. They are pictured here with Tracy Reeder and Debra Baxley, WEC board members; Kyle Singletary, alternate; Aaron McDaniels and Madison Hendrix, Washington Youth Tour winners; and Donald Ray Wilks, Board President. Geneva's River Festival is April 29

Thousands will gather at Robert Fowler Memorial Park in Geneva this spring for the annual Festival of the Rivers. They will witness worm fiddling, sculling and entertainment by Jeff Bates, Watson and Nash and Shane Owens. The Festival represents the story of the town of Geneva which began along the banks of the Choctawhatchee and Pea Rivers amost 200 years ago. View magazine.

April Energy Saving Tip

Does your home have a window air conditioner? Make sure that your window unit is properly weather stripped -- and clean the filter monthly. Keep "fresh air" vents on window A/C units closed.

Equipping Effective Leaders in our Youth

by Michael S. McWaters

Today's youth face many more obstacles and much more pressure than I did at the same age. Their world moves at a faster pace, and they are confronted with technologies that were merely ideas in a sci-fi movie in my time!

And that's just one reason why I am committed - as well as Wiregrass Electric Cooperative (WEC) - to sponsoring programs and activities that provide a positive experience and role model for today's youth.
